Child Protection Policy

1. Scope

Sight For All delivers comprehensive, evidence-based, high quality eye health care in Australia and partner countries.

Sight For All is committed to ensuring safety and wellbeing of those it works with, including children.

Sight For All considers child abuse and child exploitation unacceptable in all cases.

Children have the right to be protected and safe from abuse and exploitation.

Sight For All has a zero tolerance to child abuse and exploitation.

Adherence to this policy is a mandatory requirement for all Sight For All personnel.

Sight For All implements risk management strategies, undertakes stringent recruitment activities and adheres to local and international legislative requirements.

This policy applies to Sight For All Board Directors, staff, Visionaries, volunteers, Ophthalmic Country Officers, Fellows, project participants, project partners, consultants, contractors, advisors and their relevant personnel.

2. Commitment

As a child safe organisation, Sight For All makes the following commitments:

- Having a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse and exploitation
- All Sight For All representatives adhering to the organisation’s Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct and this Child Protection Policy at all times
- Not knowingly engaging, either directly or indirectly, anyone who poses a risk to children
- All actions concerning children are undertaken with the best interests of the child as the primary concern
- Adherence to strict recruitment, selection and screening practices for Board Directors, staff, Visionaries, Fellows and project participants
- Provisions included in employee contracts and Visionary engagement documents regarding breaches of the Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct and Sight For All Child Protection Policy
- Minimising the risks of child abuse and exploitation in all undertakings
- Carefully managing the organisation and projects to identify, mitigate and reduce the risk to children
- Undertaking child protection risk management strategies for all projects
- Conducting child safe training for personnel and ensuring personnel understand their responsibilities to protect children
- Applying procedural fairness when responding to concerns or allegations of child abuse or exploitation
- Organisational representatives adhering to local and international legislative frameworks
- Having clear guidelines on how to respond to concerns and allegations of the safety and welfare of children
- Immediately report any suspected or alleged instances of child abuse following the reporting guidelines outlined in this policy
- Adherence to the ACFID Code of Conduct and Child Protection Policy of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, January 2018
- Reviewing this Child Protection Policy on an annual basis.
3. Guiding Principles
Sight For All activities may involve direct work, indirect work or regular contact with children. As an organisation working in international development, with vulnerable communities and supporting adults and children with vision impairment or who are blind, Sight For All recognises the importance of a strong commitment to child protection. Personnel found to be in breach of this Policy, Sight For All’s Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct or who present an unacceptable risk to children may be dismissed, suspended or transferred to other duties.

The guiding principles in the development of this policy include:
- Zero tolerance of child abuse and exploitation
- Recognition of children’s best interests
- Responsibility for child protection
- Operating and procedural fairness
- Implementing risk management procedures
- Ensuring all involved with Sight For All are aware of this policy and guidelines.

As such the Sight For All Child Protection Policy is in place to:
- provide a practical guide to the protection of children from abuse
- provide a risk management strategy to prevent child abuse
- protect Sight For All employees and volunteers from unfair processes
- provide a clear guide on what to do if child abuse is suspected

4. Risk Based Approach to the Prevention of Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment
Sight For All maintains an organisational risk register, reviewed by the Board of Directors twice per year.

Risk Assessments are undertaken for all projects and are reviewed by the Finance, Risk, Audit and Compliance Committee (FRACC) at the commencement of projects.

Capacity Assessments undertaken prior to the commencement of projects examines practices to ensure the protection of children.

Specific child protection risks are identified for all projects. In identifying risks to children, Sight For All asks the question “does the project involve potential contact with children, impact children or involves working with children?’ When the answer to this question is yes, risk mitigation strategies are implemented.

Child protection risks are monitored throughout the project with the strategies including monitoring by Visionaries via trip reports, ongoing review by the Ophthalmic Public Health Officer and monthly Operations Meetings.

5. Code of Conduct
Sight For All has a Code of Conduct Policy and Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct that must be adhered to. The Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct is required to be read, acknowledged and signed prior to engagement with Sight For All. The Code of Conduct Policy and Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct outline the expected behaviours that Board Directors, staff, Visionaries, Fellows, volunteers and partner organisations are required to display at all times. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct Policy and Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, restriction of duties, termination of services, legal action or criminal investigation.
6. Responsibilities
Sight For All is responsible for:

- Undertaking risk assessments of activities to ensure risks to children are identified and managed
- Implementing child protection safeguards that are in keeping with the minimum child protection standards including appropriate recruitment, screening and employment practices
- Ensuring personnel are trained in child protection awareness and understand their obligation to protect children in carrying out work
- Having clear and internal reporting mechanisms and procedures for personnel to report concerns
- Immediately reporting any suspected or alleged instances of child abuse, exploitation, harm or Child Protection Policy non-compliance to the Executive Officer for reporting to the Conduct and Ethics Unit via childwelfare@dfat.gov.au
- Sight For All Board Directors are responsible for reviewing this policy on an annual basis
- The Sight For All Executive Officer is responsible for implementing the policy and ensuring the recruitment practices outlined in this document are undertaken
- The Executive Officer is responsible for ensuring appropriate training in child protection is provided for all involved
- The Ophthalmic Public Health Officer is responsible for undertaking risk assessments and including specific child protection risks for projects
- The Finance Office Coordinator is responsible for ensuring police checks are received for all Sight For All personnel and checking personnel against required consolidated lists.

7. Child Protection Officer
The Sight For All Child Protection Officer is the Executive Officer. The Executive Officer holds responsibility for promoting child protection, coordinating training, monitoring compliance and answering any queries.

The Sight For All Board of Directors supports the Executive Officer in undertaking training so as to remain abreast of child protection information on an ongoing basis.

8. Recruitment Practices
All those involved with Sight For All including Board Directors, staff, Visionaries, Fellows and project participants are required to provide a National Police Clearance and are checked against the DFAT Consolidated list, Attorney General's Department List of Terrorist Organisations, World Bank Listing of ineligible firms and individuals and Asian Development Bank Sanctions List.

All are required to read and understand Sight For All’s suite of policies and procedures, including the Code of Conduct Policy, Prevention of Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment Policy and sign the Vulnerable Person Code of Conduct.

Job descriptions are in place for all staff, Lead Visionaries and specific volunteer appointments. Face to face interviews and referee checks are always conducted.

A clause regarding expectations for child protection is included in staff contracts. Visionary and Fellow’s duties are outlined in their respective handbooks.

Visionaries, Fellows and project partners are personally recommended to participate in Sight For All projects. Sight For All does not permit any personnel to work with children if they pose an unacceptable risk to children’s safety or wellbeing.
9. Training of Personnel

All Sight For All Board Directors, staff, Visionaries, Fellows and project partners receive a copy of this Child Protection Policy upon engagement with Sight For All. All Sight For All personnel are required to read and sign the Vulnerable Person’s Code of Conduct upon engagement and prior to mobilisation in-country. Visionaries are provided with information about child protection in the Visionary handbook and via a video induction to be watched prior to mobilisation. The Executive Officer or Country Officer deliver workshops on good development practices, including child protection to all Fellows and project participants. These workshops are delivered upon project commencement and on an annual basis thereafter. Visionaries are aware of specific risk assessments for projects via Project Management Plans.

10. Reporting Processes

All concerns or allegations of child abuse and exploitation must be reported immediately. Sight For All takes all reports and concerns seriously and acts on them immediately. In investigating concerns or allegations of child abuse or exploitation, Sight For All ensures that principles of natural justice will prevail. The process to report an allegation of suspected or actual child abuse or exploitation is:

If it is clear that a crime has been committed, it will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement authorities and consideration given to whether any administrative investigation will be postponed. If there has been a breach of the code of conduct, then a formal internal investigation process will be undertaken by the Sight For All Board of Directors:
- Gather and study background material and documentary evidence
- Interview complainant
- Interview victims if different from above
- Interview witnesses if they exist
- Interview subject of complaint
- Write investigation report
- Conclude the investigation with recommendations

11. Use of Children's Images

Sight For All will always portray children in a way that complies with local traditions, presents children in a dignified manner and is an honest representation of the facts. In displaying images of children, Sight For All will adhere to the DFAT Child Protection Policy, ACFID Code of Conduct and ACFID Fundraising Charter. Those taking photographs and sharing stories about Sight For All, do so within the guidelines of Sight For All’s Fundraising Policy, Published Material Quality Assurance Procedure and Personal Image Consent Procedure.

When photographing or filming a child for work related purposes, Sight For All personnel must:

- Before photographing or filming a child, assess and endeavour to comply with local traditions or restrictions for reproducing personal images
- Before photographing or filming a child, obtain consent from the child or a parent or guardian of the child. This includes explaining how the photography or film will be used
- Ensure photographs, films, videos and DVD’s represent children in a dignified and respectful manner and not in a vulnerable or submissive manner. Children should be adequately clothed and not in poses that could be seen as sexually suggestive
- Ensure images are an honest representation of the context and facts
- Ensure file labels do not reveal identifying information about a child when sending images electronically
- Hard copies and scanned copies of consent forms are kept at Sight For All head office, Sight For All’s Personal Image Consent Procedure and Photographic Consent Record Procedure outline specific requirements in the taking and storage of photographs of children.
